HALLOWEEN

WELL, I started this page to inform you of a couple people who are under the weather, but no one wanted anyone else to know, so I'll just say
"ALL YOU SICKIES GET BETTER !"

I do want everyone to know that InkJet Super Store <http://www.inkjetsuperstore.com> has given us a good gift. I recently ordered some more ink from them to print the newsletter. I was really surprised when I got two different E's from them. One confirmed they had mailed my order for 4 black ink cartridges & 4 yellow cartridges, minus my $1.26 discount. The other E was confirming my order for 4 yellow cartridges & 4 black cartridges, also with a $1.26 discount. I was just wondering about this when I got another E from them. They had made a mistake and had mailed me two different orders of the same thing. The only difference was one was black & yellow, the other one was yellow & black. They told me to keep both orders, since they made a mistake.

That's $31.90 worth of ink for free ! For those who don't know, ink is very expensive when you buy it in the store. Many people pay this much, or more, for just one cartridge ! I paid this much for 8 ink cartridges, plus the 8 free ones.

Now for a personal note. After 3 years staying on my diet, I've been off my diet for a little while. I didn't want to be dieting for this milestone birthday + the family gathering for Easter. A few liberties have been taken lately, including a small piece of Lady Finger cake Alma brought to the Board Meeting last week.. I only gained back 15 lbs of my 50 lbs I lost.

Now I'm on the HCG Diet. It's a homeopathic weight loss aide that uses 10 drops of the liquid put under the tongue 3 times a day, plus a very strict diet. I get it a Elliot's Natural Natural Foods, not on line. I KNOW Elliot's is trustworthy.

I saw this on the Dr. Oz show, plus have several friends who are doing quite well on it. They lose about 20 lbs in 6 weeks. My son, Rick, has a friend who lost 80 lbs in about 6 months. But remember, men always loose much more weight, much faster.

I've been on it 2 days and lost 2 lbs. already. I have not been hungry. I am a diabetic, so I'm using logic with it. I have added one had boiled egg (protein) with breakfast & another one just before going to bed. I'm checking my blood sugar an hour after each meal and so far it's been fine.

Basically it's coffee or tea plus a piece of fruit for breakfast; protein, vegetables, & melba toast, tea or coffee for lunch & dinner, with one piece of fruit for an in-between snack. Lots of water ! They recommend you eat only organic fruit & vegetables and meat that has not been fed any hormones or antibiotics. YES, I still don't like chocolate ! :o)Charlotte
